Peggy: Do you know some more information?

Tom: When I was discussing the project with my schoolmates, our headteacher came and told us something about a successful project application. It is important to find a project leader from among the professors. And then, when I was talking to the headteacher, prof. Cranberry entered the room and gave me this letter.

Peggy: Well, we need to ask the professor about his guidance and leadership tomorrow. But as of today, I am very tired so I need to go home. I need to walk my dog and then to go to bed.
